

SERGIUS ASSASSINATED

WITHIN THE WALLS OF THE KREMLIN.

A Revolutionist Casts a Bomb Under the Carriage of the Grand Duke.

Moscow, Feb. 18th.—Within the walls of the far famed Kremlin palace, almost underneath the historic tower from which it is the terrible watched the heads of his enemies falling beneath the axe on the famous "red square" and within a stone's throw of the great bell of Moscow the Grand Duke Sergius the brother-in-law of the Emperor and Chief of the revolutionaries met a terrible death at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The deed was committed by a single terrorist, who threw beneath the carriage of the duke a bomb charged with the same high power explosive which wrought Minister Pleve's death. The missile was packed with nails and fragments of iron and its explosion tore the Imperial victim's body to gory fragments which strewed the snow for yards around. Every window in the lofty palace was shattered and bits of iron were imbedded in the walls of the arsenal a hundred yards away. The assassin belongs to the noted "fighting group" of the socialist revolutionary party which has removed other officials, and since passed the sentence of death upon Sergius. It was the irony of fate that Sergius after taking refuge in a country village during the strike and later seeking more secure shelter in the palace should be killed while proceeding to the Governor General's palace beyond the walls. Grand Duchess Elizabeth who had been engaged preparing comforts for wounded soldiers in Manchuria was about to join her husband when she heard what had happened. She was driven in haste to the scene and knelt, hatless and coatless on the blood-stained snow and murmured prayers for the welfare of his soul.

A few minutes before the bell of the gate sounded and three equipages emerged from the gates of the palace and proceeded followed by sleighs containing secret police to the square. There a man stepped forward from the sidewalk and threw the bomb which he had concealed beneath his coat, a terrible

City Auditor Presents Preliminary Report for 1904, Suggesting Alterations in Accounting System.

The preliminary report of A. R. Tomlinson, city auditor, for the year ending December 31st, 1904, was the main item on the programme at last night's council meeting. This document has been on the table for several weeks awaiting a chance to make its appearance, but the opportunity only came last night. The report was a long one—fourteen pages typewritten—but the secretary read it through, punctuating it here and there with brief intimations of his opinion of it, which were promptly met by counter remarks from the city auditor.

The report pointed out what the auditor considered erroneous methods at present in vogue in the civic accounting system, and outlined a system which would be free from these objections.

Alderman Griesbach said that as the matters of dispute were technical and it was impossible to get a thorough grasp of all of them from hearing the report read, he would move that it be referred back to the secretary, the auditor and the finance committee for investigation and examination, and that copies of it be supplied each alderman for perusal before the next meeting.

Alderman Clark wanted to know why this was not the regular report but only a preliminary statement.

Mr. Tomlinson replied that

THE AUDITOR'S REPORT.

the books for the year had not been closed and the annual report would not be prepared until this was done.

The secretary said there were some entries not yet made in the books for last year, regarding which he had expected the auditor to confer with him. He had been waiting for instructions from the council regarding some of the matters concerned.

The auditor said he had endeavored to consult with Mr. Kinnaid on several occasions, but never with very much satisfaction to himself. On one occasion the secretary had ordered him out of the office with the alternative of being punched.

Mr. Kinnaid replied that on the occasion in question the auditor had made some very nasty remarks because he had been told the council were opposed to allowing him in the city office after the regular hours.

Mr. Tomlinson replied that ex-Councillor Cushing had informed him it was not the council but the secretary who objected. Ex-Mayor Short had told him the same. He considered that the secretary had tried to hulk him in making a good audit.

Mr. Kinnaid said that when he recommended to the old council that the auditor be given the freedom of the office the council wanted to place the responsibility on him by leaving it to his discretion, but he had asked that the council take the responsibility by a definite action.

Alderman Clark asked who had the combination of the safe at present.

The secretary replied Mr. Kolling was the only office employee who had it and he was responsible for him.

Alderman Boyle said that as there were divergent views held by the parties concerned, the only way for the council to settle matters was to have the books produced at a special meeting where the point could be explained by the secretary and the auditor.

Alderman McLeod thought there was bad blood between the secretary and the auditor, and that the Aldermen could not decide the technicalities involved and should secure a first-class accountant to go into the question.

Alderman Clark thought this would be a reflection on the ability of the secretary.

Alderman Bellamy thought that it would be a compliment rather than a reflection to both parties.

Mr. Tomlinson said he would be glad if a competent man were engaged to arbitrate the case.

Alderman Boyle thought the bad blood was not all on one side. The auditor had made a report and this should be considered. The council was not the protector of a city employee. The Aldermen were elected to look after the city's business. The auditor had complained of a lack of courtesy being shown him. This attitude of a city official should be considered by the council. He thought that the Auditor should have free access to the books and office and his report should be carefully considered.

Alderman McLeod thought few of the Aldermen would be capable of deciding in the matter.

Alderman Bellamy agreed and urged that as the council was now far behind in business this matter should be placed in the hands of an expert. He thought the secretary would be glad to have expert advice on some questions.

Mr. Kinnaid assented to this. The changing conditions of the city had introduced new requirements and demanded alterations in the system of accounting and he would be glad to have some advice.

Mr. Tomlinson thought a certain reflection had been cast on himself. His report had not yet been considered. He thought Mr. Kinnaid and himself should first go into the report and a third man called in to arbitrate if found necessary.

Alderman Clark thought the auditors contention was correct. The council should first hear the point of difference explained by the secretary and the auditor.

Alderman Picard thought an explanation was all that was necessary and seconded Alderman Griesbach's motion.

Alderman Boyle moved in amendment that the report be laid on the table for one week to be taken up by the council.

Alderman Bellamy was opposed to multiplying the number of meetings and would oppose the amendment.

Mr. Tomlinson considered it well to have the finance committee go into the report with the secretary and himself. His report of 1903 had been filed by the order of the Mayor without the consideration of the committee or the council.

The motion was put and carried and the meeting adjourned

ADJOURNED MEETING

OF THE CITY COUNCIL

The Pedler's license fee—Legal fees to be paid for police investigation—City finances.

The city council held an adjourned session in the chamber last evening to clean up several matters of unfinished business, Aldermen May, McLeod, Clark, Griesbach, Picard, Bellamy and Boyle being present.

A. Bruce Powley wrote asking that the license fee charged pedlers be raised. After a lengthy discussion the letter was referred to the License and Police committee for report.

Notices of application for incorporation were read and filed from the Saskatchewan bridge Co. and the Athabasca railway & oil Co.

The Canada Permanent mortgage corporation offered to take a six months bonus of interest and allow the city to pay off two mortgages on property recently purchased by the council in the east end of the city. The offer was accepted.

Acting commissioner McLeod reported that the Commissioners were still grappling with the dog pound question and reported progress.

The Finance Committee recommended that the legal fees of Mr. E. T. Bishop in connection with the recent police investigation be paid, the amount not to exceed $25.

The Secretary Treasurer reported that a note had been due at the bank for $30000 from Dec. 31st which should be paid. As $20000 of this was incurred in carrying out public works last season, he presented a by-law providing that debentures be issued for this sum, the remainder to be carried in the current account. Some of the Aldermen were suspicious of the new charter as it affected the liability of Aldermen voting a money bylaw without examining it. The by-law was sent up to the Finance Committee for consideration and report.

The Secretary presented a certificate from the city engineer acknowledging the receipt of one car of tile from A. Grant, cost $1000 and asking that this be paid. The Secretary said it would be necessary to provide for the payment as well as ordering it paid. There were no funds available and in days gone by the trouble of the city financier had been augmented by the council frequently disregarding this condition of affairs. Discussion ensued as to the means of procedure in certifying accounts in general and those for material of this kind in particular and wound up by a resolution that the bill be paid when certified by the finance Commissioners and the finance committee. Ways and means were not discussed.

The preliminary report of the city auditor for 1904 was then read and the discussion thereon continued until adjournment at 11:15 p. m.

explosion followed a thick smoke arose and when it cleared, on the snow lay the fragments of the body of the Duke, mingled with the wreckage of the carriage. The Duke's head had been torn from his body and reduced to a shapeless pulp. The trunk and limbs were frightfully mangled and a crimson tint and a keen smell were everywhere. The coachman lay moaning with pain beside a deep hole in the pavement. The horses dragging the front wheels of the carriage, had dashed off, to sink dying before they reached the gate.

The assassin was thrown to the ground by the force of the explosion but arose and attempted to escape. He hasted and the blood streaming from his face where he had been wounded by the fragments of the bomb attracted the police who sent him. He did not deny his crime but gloried in it a success and expressed his satisfaction that he had been able to kill the Duke without involving the latter's wife.

RE THE CAPITAL

"Red Deer is sending two representative business men to Ottawa to work in the interest of Calgary as the Provincial Capital. They will arrive in the city tonight enroute to the east.

These delegates were selected at a mass meeting at which resolutions were adopted declaring Calgary the logical capital of the western province and favoring this city for commercial, geographical and industrial reasons.

The above quotation from the Calgary Herald is quite true except in two very important particulars.

1st. At the mass meeting referred to there was no such resolution presented or adopted "declaring Calgary the logical Capital."

2nd. The delegation proceeding to the East was not instructed "to work in the interest of Calgary as the provincial Capital."

Red Deer did at a previous meeting accept Calgary's view to the extent of expressing willingness to see the provincial capital at a non-competitive point but she had no intention of going further in the way of taking sides or becoming mixed up in the quarrel likely to arise between Edmonton and Calgary over this question.—Red Deer News.

A SETTLER'S TROUBLES.

The Editor

Sir:—It is very gratifying to see farmers who have the welfare of this great country at heart, to see that our brother farmers are awakening to the fact that they are to a large extent responsible for the present state of affairs. We have been grumbling for years at the treatment we have received from the buyers of our produce, also at the state of our roads and the prices of our implements and other necessities of life. The problem is a large one and it will take the time and brains of many a thinking man to solve it, but though perhaps it is too much for us to undertake to try and right all our wrongs at once, still we are not alive to our interests if we do not grapple with at least some of the wrongs as we run up against them. In union is strength and I am satisfied that we farmers should do so to form a strong organization. We can then move in the matter of righting many of the wrongs we now suffer. I am glad to see the article in your paper re a scheme to build a co-operative flour and oatmeal mill. It is quite time something in that line was done and I trust that the time is not far distant when we shall not have to give 30 lbs. of a bushel of wheat to get the other 30 lbs made into flour, and about 6½ bushels of oats to get one of oatmeal. I have been given to understand that only about one third of that charge is made to the farmers in the east for gristing and that the law will not allow more to be charged. There again where organization would come in. We could bring such matters before parliament and have such laws apply to the millers of the west.

We could ask for and obtain a living price for our pork, our beef, our grain, our butter, our eggs and all other produce.

Yes sir, perhaps some truth may be attached to the reasons you give why farmers cannot sell their hogs, but at the same time I cannot quite believe that hogs can be shipped into this country and sold for less than five cents per pound. Perhaps the hog business is carried on after the same style as that of oats last season; when plenty of oats could have been got from farmers right here at 30 cents, lots were shipped in at a greater cost. Is this done to keep the farmer down and in his place as some say?

Every season we see carloads of bacon brought into this country from the east. Are our packers not able to put up the same quality? What is the reason they do not take advantage of the market we have at home? Hogs in the east, are as a rule, worth more than we get here and yet they make them into bacon and pay freight to Edmonton. Do they do it for fun? No! Smoked bacon sells here at 12½ to 15 cents per pound. It must pay, there is another chance for co-operative farmers. Pack your own.

Our troubles are not all tied up in the middle man's bundle. We should have something to say in the matter of railway rates. We have recently sent to Ottawa a farmers' candidate and we must keep him posted as to our wants, and as to what is required to make our country prosperous. When we tackle a storekeeper on the matter of prices we are asked to pay for articles, he tells us it is worth something to live in a country like this. Does this only apply to one part of the community? What about the farmer who loads his wagon in the spring and pulls out of town for his homestead perhaps a hundred miles away, and has to swim creeks and plunge through mudholes, killing his horses and almost getting discouraged before he arrives at that quarter section he is told he has been made a present of?

Much can be said of the wrongs and hardships that need not be suffered. We believe the time has come when the money spent by the Government on immigration agents could be better spent in making the settlers who are here more comfortable, by building bridges and improving roads so that the farmers can haul a full load to market with some comfort and with little risk to his team. Don't talk of putting duty on lumber. Let us have all the lumber that can be sent at as low a price as possible. We need it badly. Let us have buildings for our horses and stock, in which some comfort can be found for both man and beast and why not our Government give us a little attention

Concluded on page 7.

The Canadian Northwest Homestead Regulations

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, excepting 1 and 2, which has not been homesteaded, or reserved to provide wood lots for settlers, or for other purposes, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age to the extent of one quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

ENTRY.—Entry may be made per the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or, if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the local agent for the district in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10.00 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, reside upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent, may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent, counter-signed in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon said land.

The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same to whether or an adjoining or cornering township.

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses 2, 3, or 4, must or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, and have besides 80 acres sub-subsistence.

The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1899.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the local agent, sub-agent, or Homestead Inspector. Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, at Ottawa, of his intention to do so.

Information.—Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office, in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office, in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing land to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal and mineral laws, as well as respecting Dominion Lands in the Railway Belt in British Columbia, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba or the Northwest Territories.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

N.B.—In addition to Free Grant Lands to which the regulations above stated refer, thousands of acres of most desirable lands are available for lease or purchase from railroad and other corporations and private firms in Western Canada.

ALL KINDS OF GOODS—Fur Coats, Fur Caps, Felt Boots, and Over-shoes for Women's Wear are included in the offer, and you can just revel in bargains in Linen or Lace, Collars, or Corsets, Shirt Waists or Stockings, Dress Goods or Notions. Experienced shoppers will come as early in the day as possible.

LARUE & PICARD

NOW I notice a decided improvement in the cultivation of tobacco in Cuba.

The soil is artificially fertilized and the plants regularly tended by experienced men to keep down the destructive caterpillar—and keep the plant ripped back so that only as many leaves are left on the plant as nature will allow it to properly mature—consequently the quality of the tobacco has so improved that when I buy the well matured and well cured leaves I obtain the choicest smoking material the world produces.

J. BRUCE PAYNE, Limited, Canby, P.Q.

The celebrated "Broadleaf" grown in Connecticut, I use in blends, and a genuine clear leaf tobacco. It is a product of American, Holland, and other fine tobacco and makes a delicious, clearing smoke—J.B.P.

STOLE GUNS AND AMMUNITION.

Burglars broke into the store of Potter & McDougall and E. H. Simpson on McDougall street last night. Entrance was effected into Potter & McDougall's store by the rear window in the repair shop being pried open. The burglars after gaining entrance proceeded to break into the cash register badly damaging a very valuable machine and then not finding any money proceeded to take several guns and all the ammunition in the store in value about $150.

They also visited the place of E. H. Simpson directly across the street and breaking in the front window secured two rifles which were within easy reach.

The police are working on the case and expect results from the clues they are working on at the present time.

PLAYED HOCKEY LAST NIGHT.

Cheered by a large and enthusiastic crowd who turned out to the rink last evening for the double purpose of enjoying an evening's entertainment and assisting the Public Hospital, the teams selected for the burlesque hockey match strove with varied skill and unquestionable vigor regardless of the consequences to costumes and armor.

The team disguised as ladies was composed of Messrs. Clendenan, Supple, Kennedy, Wilson, Campbell, Bridges and Kummerville.

Their opponents were Messrs. Farnis, Gray, Turnbull, Campbell, Mills, Howry and Green.

R. Fable refereed the game.

The game was well contested. The ladies not fearing their opponents, gave knock for knock. Sir Knight J. L. Mills was given the fence to cool off.

Finally the knights succeeded in locating a weak point in the ladies' defence and scored.

In the last half the ladies determined to even the score and amid the swish of skirts and flying brooms they fought stubbornly to gain their point. After indulging in some very unadmirable methods of attack, they effected the net and the score was even. The final moments of play were barren of results.

At the close of the game Mrs. F. Green and Mr. J. L. Mills headed the grand march and general skating was enjoyed until 10 o'clock, concluding one of the most entertaining events of the season in the rink.
